

THE NABBA NEWSLETTER 2015

That's right.....This page belongs to you.....all of you that have announcements or stories to tell.....

We all have news that happens in our shops, cities towns and barber boards. Here you can share the events that happen and that you are willing to share....

We will profile your news and announcements ....and every month... we will choose a special story for all who come here to read.....There is a writer in all of us...every state, every shop, every barber has a story to tell.....

We are looking for stories that excite, motivate and inspire all of us.... We also all know there are barbers out there who are doing more for their communities than just cutting hair.....Tell their stories and use your creative mind....
